

Mines Internet Radio (MIR) Guest Agreement

The purpose of this agreement is to set forth pertinent rules regarding the personal conduct of Guest's on air and in the studio. All the following rules apply to the MIR Studio as well as the Oredigger office.

- Guest's are NOT to curse, or use gender or racial slurs on air for any reason whatsoever.
- Curse words are words that might found offensive to anyone.
- There will be NO alcohol, in any shape or form.
- There will be NO tobacco, in any shape or form.
- Food must be kept in containers and any trash must be cleaned up.
- Keep food a safe distance away from any equipment.
- Any drinks in the studio must have a lid on them.

Violation of any of these rules will result in severe consequences for the DJ of the show you are appearing on. Expulsion from MIR will be considered based on the severity of your actions. Be smart and think a little bit about what you are doing and things will work out fine.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the rules outlined above, and I take responsibility for my actions and the consequences that come with them.
